Next Regular Meeting: Thursday, July 23rd, 2009 Program: Regina Marscheider/Spectrum Puppets

THIS WEEK

Program:

For more than twenty-five years, Regina Marscheider has been wowing audiences with her handcrafted casts of hundreds from the smallest of finger puppets and marionettes to life-size walking masterpieces.

As Director of Spectrum Entertainment, Regina has been producing, directing, and designing her world-class originals with a performance history that includes appearances on The Today Show, The Late Show with Joan Rivers and The Dr. Laura Show.

Throughout her earlier career and professional affiliation with Puppeteers of America, she met and was influenced by Master Puppeteers including Jim Henson and Frank Oz (the Muppets) and Burr Tillstrum (Kukla, Fran and Ollie).

Now a Master Puppeteer in her own right, Regina Marscheider spreads smiles and joy through a myriad of entertainment venues from puppet shows and festivals to fundraisers and full scale musical extravaganzas. For 9 years Regina has successfully provided all the entertainment (some 160 musicians and specialty acts) on the oceanfront of Virginia Beach for their Beachstreet USA program.

Her performances have electrified thousands at such grand events as the Virginia International Arts Festival in Norfolk, Virginia, shows at the American Music Theater in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, annual tours in New York, California, Las Vegas and numerous other cities throughout the U.S. and Canada. On a recent trip to Guatemala, she taught puppetry and performed at the Prince of Peace orphanage for little girls.
